

First quarter 2025:
Sales growth of 10.5%
to €330.3 million
(at variable exchange rates)

VIEL & Cie will continue to grow in 2025, building on the business achieved in 2024. Consolidated revenue rose by 10.5% at variable exchange rates and by 8.4% at constant exchange rates to €330.3 million. This performance was achieved in a market environment marked by the wait-and-see attitude of the main central banks in the face of contrasting economic signals, against a backdrop of persistent geopolitical tensions and heightened volatility favourable to the Group's activities.

The contribution of the various divisions to consolidated revenue is as follows:

| €m | 2025 | 2024 |
|-----------------------------|--------------|--------------|
| Professional intermediation | 311,6 | 279,8 |
| Online trading | 18,7 | 19,2 |
| Consolidated revenue | 330,3 | 299,0 |

There has been no significant change in the Group's financial position since the publication of its 2024 annual financial report.

Changes in the various income statement items at current exchange rates are calculated on the basis of the average exchange rates for the period, compared with the average rates for the previous period when translating the currencies of the Group's consolidated subsidiaries. Changes in the various income statement items at constant exchange rates are calculated using the average exchange rates for the period N-1 over the two comparative periods..

VIEL & Cie comprises three core businesses in the financial sector: Compagnie Financière Tradition, with a presence in 30 countries, ranked third top global player in the IDB sector with over 2,600 employees worldwide, Bourse Direct, leader in the online trading sector in France, and a 40% equity accounted stake in SwissLife Banque, operating in the private banking sector in France.
